Three Big Keith Acts and Triangle Photoplays-New Show Tomorrow.

Today will be the last chance to see the excellent vaudeville and picture show now appearing at this theatre, and anyone who has not seen the show does several impersonations and intro-troduces dances that are always a big bit. In the photoplays the Tribig hit. In the photonlays the Triangle feature is called The Last Act, with Bessie Earriscale as the star.

Albert Spalding. No one can ever accuse Albert Spalding, the violinist, of not being a typical American youth. In spite of the fact that he was educated in Europe, an deven has a beautiful home in sunny Italy, he goes so far as to make many of his European friends wish they were citizens protected by the wings of the American Eagle. Mr. Spalding is most to be admired for his frank and independent spirit. For a violinist of world renown he never forgets that he is a man among men, and that art is but one of the principles that go to make a man what he should be, whether it be born in him or acquired. He loves American music, and has found much pleasure in sic, and has found much pleasure in enlarging upon negro folk songs. Last season he brought forth a unique lit-tle number which he called "Alabama." This piece is written for the violin and piano and received much popu-larity. Since then he has been work-ing on a number of other well-known
